Roundtable Discussion on new approaches to EU Migration: Innovations in designing and implementing new labour migration pathways

Tuesday, 1 June 2021 (3.30-5.00 pm CEST)

Organised jointly by the European Migration Network and the World Bank

The European Migration Network (EMN) and the World Bank Group (WBG) have the pleasure to invite you to a discussion on the topic of New approaches to EU Migration: Innovations in designing and implementing new labour migration pathways, taking place online on the 1 June, 3:30-5:00pm CEST.

The purpose of this roundtable discussion is to engage and advance our understanding of the following questions:

- What are the interests and labour market needs in countries of origin and destination? What are important elements to consider in designing fair and effective labour migration programs?
- Who are the main stakeholders in these pilot initiatives and why does a public-private partnership make sense?
- What can we learn from these pilot initiatives and how can they be upscaled into long term, mutually beneficial, structured and sustainable partnerships?

- Alexander Wilhelm, Director of International Placement Services (ZAV) of the Federal Employment Agency, Germany
- Raffaella Greco Tonegutti, Lead expert Migration and Development, Belgian Development Agency (Enabel)
- Rob de Lobel, LHD Programme and Policy Officer, IOM Belgium
- Salima Bensalem, Head of International Placement, ANAPEC

Moderator: Manjula Luthria, Senior Economist at the World Bank

Opening and closing remarks: Julia Lendorfer, National Contact Point EMN AT, Head of Research and Migration Law at IOM

Please find attached a short background note for the virtual event.
