

Legal Consultancy Unit (LCU)

The Legal Consultancy Unit (LCU), led by Prof. Manuela Consito with the Human Rights and Migration Law Clinic's students, will create a more permanent link with the local community.

Selected law students will take part in groups devoted to analyse the legal issues related to: the family reunification of migrants; the role played by private and public institutions in promoting reception and integration of unaccompanied foreign minors; the migrants' access to decent work and social protection.

The aim is to develop practical guidance and materials for concrete application by local and national actors, through a learning-by-doing approach aimed at developing and supporting awareness of work-related rights, benefits and duties both of the migrants and of the stakeholders.
